

PERSONAL PROFILE

Dr. Stephan Tisseront received his DDS degree at the University of Paris VII in 1993 and practiced general dentistry in Paris, France for two years. He received his Master of Science Degree in Orthodontics at Oregon Health Sciences University in 1998. Dr. Tisseront has been in private Orthodontic practice since 1998 in Reston, Virginia, with a focus on aesthetics in Orthodontic treatment. Since its start, Dr. Tisseront has chosen to integrate Lingual Orthodontics into his practice. His patients include a large adult population, many of whom seek his combination of high quality, effective treatment together with discreet Orthodontic treatment options. A number of his patients travel from across the country and overseas to seek his expertise in Lingual Orthodontics. Dr. Tisseront's patients include high-profile executives who live across the country and overseas, as well as Television Personalities, Bloggers and Professional Athletes. Several of his patients have made appearances on television while in Lingual treatment and regularly speak in front of large audiences.

Wilckodontics is another part of Dr. Tisseront's practice and he is a pioneer in the application of Wilckodontics with Lingual appliances. Dr. Tisseront is a consultant and speaker for Harmony and American Orthodontics.

Dr. Tisseront and his Team actively support his local community and Dr. Tisseront also holds the position of official Orthodontist of the DC United Soccer Team. He also supports Sports team coaches by holding Sports Dentistry Seminars.
