Dr. Alexander earned his Bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University, where he loosened a few teeth as a First Team Academic All-American defensive back on the Red Raider football team. After obtaining his D.D.S. from Baylor College of Dentistry in Dallas, he earned his M.S.D. in 1990 from the University of Washington, Seattle, one of the top orthodontic residency programs in the nation. From 1990 through 1995, Dr. Alexander was a practicing orthodontist in Arlington, Texas. During this time, Dr. Chuck treated more than 1,500 patients and earned the coveted C.T. Rowland Award in 1995 for outstanding clinical treatment.

Dr. Alexander has lectured in several states, as well as in Mexico, Canada and Russia. He is an active member of the American Association of Orthodontics, a Diplomate of the American Board of Orthodontics, and past President of the Edward H. Angle Southwest. He has also published many articles in clinical and scientific journals. Doctor Chuck and his wife, Keri, have three children, Mac, Blake and Kellyn. An avid outdoorsman, he and his family chose the Western Slope as the place to continue creating "super Alexander smiles."
